(a) in sub-section (2), after clause (g), the following clauses shall be inserted, namely:—

“(g1) the amount of salary, or honorarium, or the maximum of the scale of pay of any post, the creation of which requires the previous approval of the Central Government under section 15,

(g2) the amount of capital expenditure in respect of any scheme or proposal the implementation of which would require the previous approval of the Central Government under section 15, or the original or book value of any property, right or privilege the disposal of which would require such approval;

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Under section 15 of the Oil and Natural Gas Commission Act, 1959, for creating any post the salary of which exceeds a specified amount, or for implementing any scheme involving a capital expenditure of a specified amount, or for disposing of any property whose value exceeds a specified amount, the Oil and Natural Gas Commission has to obtain the previous approval of the Central Government. Having regard to the vastly expanded activities of the Commission in recent years, Government consider that the Commission should have enhanced powers in these matters and it is accordingly proposed to amend section 15 to take power to specify in the rules to be made under the Act such limits on the exercise of the powers of the Commission as may be considered necessary by the Government from time to time. As the activities of the Commission extend to many outlying areas where there may be no branches of the Reserve Bank of India or the State Bank of India or a Government Treasury, it is further proposed to amend sub-section (3) of section 19 to facilitate keeping of monies of the Commission in other banks. Provision is also proposed to be made for issue of directions (including directions for reservation of posts for the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes) by the Central Government to the Commission generally regarding its affairs.

2 Opportunity is being taken to modify sub-section (3) of section 31 of the Act relating to laying of rules before Parliament to make it conform to the rule-laying formula recommended by the Committee on Subordinate Legislation.

3 The Bill seeks to achieve the above objects.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Clause 6(a) of the Bill which seeks to insert new clauses (g1), (g2) and (g3) in sub-section (2) of section 31 of the Oil and Natural Gas Commission Act, 1959, empowers the Central Government to make rules for determining—

- (a) the amount of salary, or honorarium, or the maximum of the scale of pay of any post, the creation of which requires the previous approval of the Central Government under section 15 of the Act;
- (b) the amount of capital expenditure in respect of any scheme or proposal the implementation of which would require the previous approval of the Central Government under that section, or the original or book value of any property, right or privilege the disposal of which would require such approval;
- (c) any bank in which the monies of the Commission may be deposited as provided in section 19.

The matters in respect of which such rules may be made are generally matters of procedure and administrative detail. The delegation of the legislative power is, therefore, of a normal character
